Rescuers Trying to Reach 18 Trapped Miners

By ROBERT MILLE

LOGAN, W. Va. (AP)—A rescue crew has worked its way behind the fire that has trapped 18 men four miles in a coal mine for more than 24 hours.

How they did it wasn't known, but an Island Creek Coal Co. spokesman said the fire was definitely under control and had been bypassed, perhaps by means of a tunnel parallel to the gas and fume-filled section of the mine.

"They (the crew) should be within 500 feet of where the trapped men are believed to have barricaded themselves," the spokesman said.

The word raised hopes again that the miners would be rescued alive.

"We're very hopeful" said N. T. Camilla, vice president of operations.

Outside the mine, eight miles southwest of here, near the Kentucky border, men manning the crews and marshaling materials outnumbered the crowd of relatives and others, thinned by the bitter weather.

New snow, up to four inches, was forecast for the area, and temperatures were in the teens. The snow started soon after day-break, and mountain roads in the area were turned into slick slides, impeding travel.

State police sent a rush call to the Road Commission for cinder-ing crews and plows.

"We assume that the trapped men have barricaded themselves off," said Robert M. Johnson, manager of Island Creek. The company's Holden 22 mine is eight miles from this southern West Virginia city.

Johnson said one of those trapped is William K. Donaldson, mine safety director, who could guide the men in survival tactics. "He's had experience with this sort of emergency," said Johnson. The manager said flames had broken out on both sides of the state fall. A team of 40 men battled in smoke and fumes to put out the blaze that ate into coal and slate and timber props.

Rescuers couldn't move on 2,600 feet further, where the imprisoned were believed to be, until the fires were practically out.

Officials theorized that the slate fall that triggered the 200-foot long blockade broke a trolley wire which ignited coal and timber.

Black from burrowing through coal and dirt in a 14-inch ventilation passage, Willis Carter, 40, and Kyle Blair, 29, told how they crawled on their bellies for nearly three hours in a dramatic escape.

Carter, whose brother James is one of those trapped, said eight or 10 other workers also could have escaped.

"I tried to get them to follow me, but they wouldn't listen," said Carter, who is responsible for ventilation at the mine.

Carter figured the two crawled 2,240 feet through the narrow tunnel. He said some of the men remained behind on orders from their foreman.

For a time after the accident the trapped men were safe in a well-ventilated area. They talked by telephone with those on the outside. Then the phone went dead, presumably because a cable burned.

Kennedy's Stock Up in N. Hampshire Vote

By RELMAN MORIN

MANCHESTER, N. H. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy's presidential stock skyrocketed to new highs today as a result of his record-topping performance in the New Hampshire primary.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, on unopposed on the Republican ballot, also smashed the GOP record.

With all but one of the state's 200 precincts reported, from Tuesday's primary, the Massachusetts senator had 42,909 votes in the Democratic preferential poll. This more than doubled the highest figure heretofore rolled up by any other Democratic presidential aspirant in the New Hampshire election.

Nixon's complete total reached 65,077. The previous high, 56,464, was established in 1956 by President Eisenhower.

The New Hampshire election was the first of 16 state presidential primaries.

Despite Nixon's record vote, Kennedy broke down the traditional 2-1 Republican margin of superiority in the state. The ratio in Tuesday's election was about 3-2.

Two significant results of the election were immediately apparent.

1. Nixon's spectacular showing should go a long way toward dispelling the last remnants of any Nixon-can't-win talk. The vice president did not come to New Hampshire to campaign personally. Top GOP leaders in the state carried the burden of his campaign.

2. Kennedy, already considered one of the leading Democratic presidential candidates, if not the front runner, moved closer to the center of the spotlight. His most enthusiastic supporters had not dared go above 38,000 in their forecasts of his poll in the "beauty Continued on Page Six

Economic Aid Plan Is Studied

WASHINGTON (AP) — Nine of the free world's wealthiest nations begin today to draft a set of informal ground rules aimed to step up economic aid to less developed nations.

Led by the United States, Britain and France, the Allies tackle the problem at a special meeting called to devise better ways to offset the Soviet Union's mounting foreign economic offensive.

Others represented are Canada, West Germany, Belgium, Italy, Portugal and Japan.

Western countries attending the meeting funnel about 3 1/2 billion dollars to direct aid to other areas annually. The biggest chunk of this — about 2 1/2 billion dollars — comes from the United States.

The four-day conference, bringing together top economic representatives of the nine, is the first concrete step in an allied decision to pour even more money into Asia, the Middle East and Africa in the years ahead.

His speech set forth no new policy or specific proposals for dealing with Latin American problems although he declared this country's intentions to do what it can to help them speed their industrial development.

Diversification of agriculture and industry, Eisenhower said, would help many of the countries which depend for their economic well-being largely on a single product, such as coffee.

Pocahontas Seeks Step Forward

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The city of Pocahontas wants to become a first class city and Mayor Jerry Burrow says the Randolph County site has the population to make the step forward.

However, Burrow failed to list the population figure in a petition for first class status and Pocahontas can't be promoted from second class until the state Municipal Board has it.

Secretary of State C. G. Hall said the petition would be granted as soon as the figure is received.

Arkansas law provides that a city may become first class when its population exceeds 4,000. The 1950 census lists Pocahontas with 3,480 people, but Burrow said a recent special census sent the figure over 4,000.

Relations With South America Good, Ike Says

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower says relations between the United States and Latin America have reached "an all-time high."

But a growing diplomatic storm with the Fidel Castro government of Cuba provided a sharp exception to the general picture Eisenhower painted in a nationwide television address Tuesday night.

Eisenhower made no reference to Cuba as he reported to the American people on his 15,560-mile tour of four South American countries. Despite the excellent relations he reported, he said there were some notable exceptions.

"An even firmer partnership must be our goal," he added. Shortly before he spoke, Cuba rejected as insulting a statement by Secretary of State Christian A. Herter Monday denouncing implications by Castro that U.S. sabotage may have been involved in last week's explosion of an ammunition ship in Havana.

Herter had called the accusation "baseless, erroneous and misleading," and said it raised questions of the Castro regime's desire for better relations with this country.

Cuba fired back Tuesday night a protest "against the aggressive tone derogatory to our national dignity." Foreign Minister Raul Roa insisted that Cuban representatives must be addressed with "absolute respect... without descending to offensive utterances of a personal character."

"The State Department declined immediate comment. In his speech, Eisenhower called his tour of South American countries "a most instructive and rewarding experience."

Cuba Rejects Herter Reply as Insulting

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP)—Cuba Tuesday night rejected as "insulting" U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter's condemnation of Fidel Castro for his implication that American officials were responsible for last Friday's munitions ship explosion in Havana harbor.

Castro's propaganda apparatus today loudly hailed Foreign Minister Raul Roa's sharply worded statement rejecting Herter's protest. Another triumph for Cuba's "national dignity," said pro-government radio and TV stations.

The propaganda organs used the latest development in the heated U.S.—Cuban word battle as the basis for new appeals for public donations to pay for arms to use against "foreign aggressors."

Roa's statement, made to U.S. charge d'affaires Daniel M. Braddock, took offense at the tongue-lashing Herter gave Cuban Charge d'Affaires Enrique Patterson Monday.

Roa demanded that the U.S. government, "whenever it addresses itself to the representatives of the revolutionary government do so with absolute respect for their official status (and) without descending to offensive utterances of a personal character."

During his session with Patterson, Herter denounced as "baseless, erroneous and misleading" Castro's implication that U.S. officials were to blame for the explosions aboard the French ship La Coubre which killed more than 50 persons.

Herter charged that the fiery Cuban Prime Minister displayed an "unfounded and irresponsible attitude."

The Cuban retort said Herter's statements had an "aggressive tone, derogatory to our national dignity."

Roa told Braddock the Cuban government is looking forward to giving "a proper reply" to the formal U.S. note of protest when it arrives.

An international commission began an investigation of the ship explosion. The commission includes representatives of British firms with insurance interests in the ship or her cargo, representatives of the French ship's owners, French maritime experts, and explosive engineers from the Belgian firm that sold the cargo of munitions to Castro.

Cotton farmers are again urged to release any cotton acreage that will not be planted in 1960 to the Hempstead ASC County Committee as soon as convenient in order to protect their allotment base for 1961 as well as the county history acreage for future years.

Under present regulations, a producer must plant or have considered as planted at least 75 per cent of the 1960 farm allotment in order to preserve acreage history for 1961.

Failure to plant or release farm allotments in the case of cotton and peanuts, will result in a substantial loss of history to the individual farm and to the county as a whole.

Therefore, a farmer who does not plant or release at least 75 per cent of his allotment not only loses acreage for his own farm, but indirectly contributes to loss of county history as well. A loss of cotton acreage in the county, also means a considerable economic loss to the county.

There are farms in the County ASC office for the purpose of releasing acreage and all farmers are requested and urged to visit the county office at their earliest convenience and release unwanted acreage to the committee.

The final date for releasing cotton allotments is April 11, however it is requested that action on this matter be taken immediately in order that the released acreage may be re-allotted to other farmers desiring additional acreage in time for proper planting.

Recess a Day; South Visions Second Victory

WASHINGTON (AP)—The death of Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore) brought a one-day truce today in the bitter Senate battle over civil rights.

Colleagues turned to eulogies of the Oregon senator, and planned to recess afterwards until 9:30 a.m. (EST) Thursday in respect to Neuberger's memory.

On developments in the civil rights battle to date, Southerners could claim a first-round victory while looking forward to another Thursday in the first major vote.

Yet the outlook still was for the eventual passage of a voting rights bill stronger than the Southerners want although not going as far as ardent civil rights backers would like to go.

The Dixie bloc won the initial round with a decision of the leadership Tuesday to call off around-the-clock sessions which had tied the Senate in knots through six all-night meetings.

Thursday's test will come with a vote on a petition, filed by 23 Democrats and 8 Republicans who call themselves liberals, to put a limit on debate. There appears to be no chance that this will get the two-thirds support required to invoke cloture the Senate's name for a restriction on debate.

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas proposed that this vote come at 2 p.m. EST Thursday.

Johnson reiterated, in a talk with reporters, his view that the filing of the cloture petition "is very premature—and it will not get the job done—it will only prolong debate."

Similarly, Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen (Ill.) has taken a stand that cloture effort now is premature. He and Johnson both said they would vote against it.

Mother Yells — Girl Can't Take It

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My mother calls me names and says I'm going to end up in a school for girls. She finds something wrong with all my friends. I hate her. I spent a summer at my grandparents and was very happy, but any time I mention going back there, she blows her top. I've always got to work at home. In the morning when I'm going out the door, she says if I don't get back in the house she'll call the cops. I wrote a letter to you before. She found it. What can I do?—Mistreated

Dear Mistreated: My heart goes out to children in trouble. I'm on their side. But, in fairness to your mother, it is necessary to hear her side before passing judgment. However, this much is certain: she has no right to call you names or intercept your mail. Take this reply of mine to your clergyman and ask him to help you. If you don't belong to a church, join one and you'll find that God indeed moves in a mysterious way his wonders to perform.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

My girl friend and I go to quite a few dances. We gladly dance with any nice boy that asks us. But when Lady's Choice comes around, we don't know what to say. Please tell us how to ask a boy to dance and what to talk about while we dance.—A. & B.

Dear A. and B.: Two of my leaflets, "Manners and Young People" and "Making Conversation" answer your questions. They will be forwarded upon receipt of stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I've been going with a boy off and on for two years. I'm a cheerleader, fairly popular at school, and know lots of boys, but they won't ask me out. I've tried spreading word around that I'm not going steady, but even that doesn't work.

My boy friend says I must either go steady with him or say goodbye. He's a reliable guy and would make a wonderful husband, but I just can't give up the idea of going with other guys. My boy friend has given me two weeks to make up my mind. I'm about frantic. I am 16, he is 19. My Mother and Dad say he is a very nice boy.—Undecided

Dear Undecided: Don't be stampeded. If your boy friend loves you, he'll wait. Going steady has never been my dish of tea.

Suggests That Fulbright Quit

BALTIMORE, (AP)—The Baltimore Sun suggested editorially today that Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) resign as chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee.

An editorial in today's edition said Fulbright's "brave" stand against President Eisenhower, delivered while he was filibustering against the Civil Rights Bill, "made it clear" that the President of the United States is personally obnoxious to Sen. Fulbright.

Assuming broad agreement on goals, the Sun said, conduct of stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

foreign relations is influenced by how well the committee chairman and the President get along.

"In view of his recent 'brave' stand," the editorial said, "it is hard to imagine Sen. Fulbright as anything but a handicap, possibly a dangerous one, to the conduct of foreign affairs. He would do the country a favor by resigning his chairmanship."

Another reason for the resignation, the editorial said, was Sen. Fulbright "expressing his racial attitude by participating in the filibuster against Civil Rights for Negroes in parts of the South."

America's station wagon specialists complete the world's largest wagon family with TWO NEW-SIZE wagons. They're Falcons in size and styling—and full bodied Ford wagon wonders when it comes to work. With 2 foot less car to manage, you're a genius at solving traffic problems—a past master at parking.

Falcon Wagons are priced up to $154 less than other 6-passenger compact wagons. The 2-door model is America's lowest-priced 6-passenger wagon.

Falcon gives the best gas mileage of any American-built wagon, on a full tank you can go up to 34 miles on a gallon of gasoline! You get other Falcon savings, too. It pays cost less. Change oil only once in 1,000 miles. And the Falcon's aluminum mullin normally lasts as long as the ordinary kind.

Longest load floor in the compact field is yours in a Falcon. It's over 7 feet long with cargo space totaling more than 76 cubic feet!

Full six-passenger room, too, because Falcon Wagons are built for people, not just for hats, hips and legs. Come see these newest wonders in the Ford wagon world. Ford Motor Company.

West Virginia, California Win Opening Games

By DON WEISS Associated Press Sports Writer

California's defending champion Bears and the Huntington Mountaineers of West Virginia, one-two in last year's NCAA basketball tournament, are over their first hurdle in their drive for another title showdown.

Defense-minded Cal, a 71-70 winner over West Virginia in the NCAA championship battle in 1959, routed Idaho State 71-41 Tuesday night while West Virginia, with All-American Jerry West better than ever, whipped Navy 91-86.

Both were among six first-round games played in the sprawling NCAA eliminations in San Francisco, New York and Lexington, Ky. West Virginia's triumph over Navy came in an Eastern regional tripleheader at New York's Madison Square Garden in which powerful New York U. downed Connecticut 78-59 and Duke's Atlantic Coast Conference champs overcame Ivy League king Princeton, 64-60.

In Lexington, Western Kentucky routed 10th-ranked Miami (Fla.) 107-84—missing the single game NCAA scoring high by one point—and Ohio U., champion of the Mid-American Conference, upset Notre Dame 74-66 in first-round games in the Midwest regional.

California's victory, the Bears' 25th in 26 games this season and 41st in their last 42 starts, came at San Francisco in a first-round game of the Western regional.

All six winners advance to regional semifinals this weekend, when the bulky NCAA field will be chopped to the four survivors for the national semifinals and finals at San Francisco March 13 and 19.

Two games tonight will complete the line-up for the four team regionalists this Friday and Saturday at Charlotte, N.C., Louisville, Ky., Manhattan, Kan., and Seattle, Wash. New Mexico State, the Border Conference champ, plays Oregon at Corvallis, Ore., with the winner advancing to the Seattle regional. In Manhattan, Kansas, Kansas and Kansas State, champions of the Big Eight Conference, meet in a one-game playoff to determine the league's NCAA representative at the Manhattan regional.

Here's the way it looks now for Friday and Saturday:

Eastern at Charlotte, N.C. (2-1): West Virginia (25-4) vs. NYU (20-2); St. Joseph's (Pa.) (19-4) vs. Duke (16-10). (St. Joseph's first-round bye).

Midwest at Louisville-Ohio U. (17-7) vs. Georgia Tech (21-5); Western Kentucky (20-6) vs. Ohio State (23-2). (Georgia Tech, Ohio State first-round byes).

Midwest at Manhattan, Kan.—Cincinnati (25-1) vs. Detroit (16-6); Texas (18-6) vs. Kansas-Kansas State winner (Cincinnati, Texas and Big Eight champ first-round byes).

West at Seattle—California (29-1) vs. Santa Clara (21-9); UCLA (25-2) vs. New Mexico State Oregon winner (Santa Clara first-round bye).

Favorites Winners in First Round of Play

BLAITHVILLE, Ark. (AP)—North Little Rock, the prohibitive pre-tournament favorite, set out tonight to see if it can add the Class AAAA State basketball tournament title to the Big Nine Conference crown.

North Little Rock meets Forrest City, the third place team in Regional 2AA, in the last game of opening round at 8:30 p.m. Jonesboro meets Camden Fairview at 7:30 in the other night session contest.

Afternoon games send Little Rock Catholic against Hope at 2 p.m. and Fort Smith the defending champion, against Fayetteville at 3:20.

Second-seeded Blithville won the tournament's opening game yesterday, storming past Smackover 79-54 in the last game of opening round at 8:30 p.m. Jonesboro meets Camden Fairview at 7:30 in the other night session contest.

Blithville rolled up a 33-22 half-time margin and coasted through the last 16 minutes.

In other games, Little Rock Central defeated Springdale 50-29, Harrison topped Conway 63-51 and Fayetteville smothered Russellville 70-53.

Fayetteville, the 2AA champion, was the only team to beat North Little Rock this year. The Wildcats are expected to defeat late in the season, however.

Camden scored 22 points and Don Shady 20 to pace the Leachville triumph over Russellville, the third place club in Region 3AA. Jim Harris hit 14 for the losers.

Harris got double figure scoring from five players to show the best balanced attack of the opening round. Richard Robinson scored 16 points for the Golden Joe Cecil and Arlene Jones made 13 each.

Leo McCullough hit 12 and Hart Sanders 13 for Conway, which was runner-up in Region 3AA.

Jim Knecht hit 16 points and Kellie Alexander contributed 11 for Central in the victory over Springdale, which was led by Marcus Mincey 14 points.

Quarterfinals are scheduled Thursday afternoon and night, semifinals Friday night and the championship game Saturday night.

Brave Hurlers Still Hold to Pay Dispute

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Right-hander Lew Burdette, a 21-game winner for Milwaukee last season, heads an imposing list of Braves still holding firm in their salary disputes with the front office as major league baseball's holdout roster continues to dwindle.

With the exhibition season only three days away, the Braves still have four players unsigned—Burdette, relief specialist Don McMahon, outfielder Wes Covington and utility infielder Bobby Avila.

The rest of the major league clubs have only seven dissatisfied customers.

Also continuing the holdout siege are a quartet of American League outfielders — New York's Mickey Vernon, Detroit's Charlie Maxwell, Gene Woodling of Baltimore and the always late-reporting Minnie Mingo, now with Chicago's White Sox.

The others on the list are Pittsburgh's outfielder Joe Christopher, Washington pitcher Hal Griggs and infielder Ted Lepcio of Philadelphia.

The Braves, who lost the National League pennant to Los Angeles in a playoff, fired one of their key players into the fold Tuesday when they signed shortstop Johnny Logan. Salary terms were not disclosed.

The Yankees signed Tony Killebrew, who shifted between the infield and outfield last season, for about $10,000, a slight raise.

Goalie Plans Face Guard in Canada

DETROIT (AP)—Jacques Plante has done an about-face, shedding his controversial mask. But he says he'd rather wear a faceguard in Montreal Canadian games.

"I play just the same with it or without it and I have just as much guts whether I wear it or not," said the National Hockey League champion's goalie after the Detroit Red Wings blanked the Canadiens 3-0 in Tuesday game. "But I'd like to wear it again."

It was the first time Plante had appeared unmasked in a game since a puck struck his face in a game at New York Nov. 1. He was visibly shaky, especially on two of Detroit's three goals.

"I wanted him to try it to see what it was like without the mask," said Coach Toe Blake.

"I think the mask affected his play. I would prefer that he didn't wear it in the playoffs and Jacques has agreed to give it a try in these last few games."

"The Canadiens begin defense of their Stanley Cup title in two weeks.

The victory practically assured the Wings of one of the two final berths in the playoffs. They are tied with Chicago in third place. Shumping Boston trails both by eight points in the battle for the two berths.

The Hawks with a 45-20 mark, played only 17-24 ball on the road so far this season but always had the home court cushion. They have one game remaining, at Cincinnati tonight.

Murrays Have New Idea for Charity

By CYNTHIA LOWRY AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—The Arthur Murrays think they have discovered a more effective fund-raising device than the charity telethon.

Murray guaranteed Bob Hope $100,000, to be donated to Fight for Sight, in exchange for Hope's offering himself as "fall guy" in a two-part heckling program.

The two half-hour shows, which will be televised on NBC next Tuesday and March 22, enlisted the talents of a number of stars. The programs, already on tape, were previewed earlier this week by the television writers. If you like the insult humor, these are pretty funny programs.

A&M in Upset Victory in NIAA Tourney

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Arkansas A&M, with one upset victory under its belt, goes against Hamline College today in the National Intercollegiate Athletic Assn., basketball tournament.

The Boll Weevils polished off Western Washington, one of the seeded teams, 61-53 yesterday. Hamline beat Florence (Ala.) State 88-83 in overtime.

Playing the same deliberate brand of ball that won them the District 17 title, the Weevils used free throws to expand on a 46-43 lead in the last eight minutes.

Ken Jones, the freshman whose late basket gave A&M a 46-44 victory over Arkansas College in the district meet, led scoring with 21 points. Butch Ferriter added 15. Harold Mobley, normally A&M scoring leader, was held to 10 markers.

Ed Vadsset tallied 19 for the Huskers.

The victory marked a high point in A&M's fantastic season. Starting with a 2-5 Arkansas Intercollegiate Conference record late in January, the Weevils won 11 in a row against league foes to finish third at 13-5. They added three tournament victories to win their first trip to the NAIA meet.

Business Not Going to Pot in Any Way

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—Americans once given to counting their blessings might do well today to forget the stock market for a few minutes and look at the over-all scene.

Business isn't going to pot today at all.

The much-publicized cutbacks are from rather feverish activity in most cases. Getting back to a normal gait doesn't mean a recession is just around the corner. Sometimes "easy does it" is more healthy than "rush-rush."

Look at some of our economic blessings.

The total of personal incomes is at a record high and still rising. Even after taxes, Americans as a whole have more money to spend than ever before.

Retail trade is at a high level. It may be plagued by bad weather or by customer choosiness. But total consumer spending seems to be climbing to new highs in the coming spring.

Industrial output is at a record high. Even if it turns down a bit from the furious pace set in the unnatural situation after the steel strike, when many companies were trying to make up for lost ground, it seems likely to be higher than average for some time to come.

The two problem children of the industrial family—autos and steel—aren't behaving as badly as some seem to think.

Steel output is high, better than 2 1/2 million tons a week. It is expected to ease off in the months ahead. But total 1960 output is still considered likely to top last year's.

Auto sales have been running ahead of a year ago. But the goals the industry broadcast at the start of the year haven't been reached, and the high production set to meet them has piled up stocks to the point they must be readjusted, so output is being slowed for a time. Sales are still high, and if spring ever comes, there's hope they may go higher. This year should still be one of the best.

Business inventories may have risen faster than sales in January, but sales were rising. The fact that business, straining to catch up, was able to get its stocks in shape again in jig time is all to the good.

Tight money has worried borrowers and those who feared it would choke economic growth. There are signs today the money market is beginning to ease naturally and may ease more. The threat of more inflation is much less talked about, and governmental restraints may be relaxed.

Ends Censorship

HAVANA (AP)—Airport officials said today military authorities have ended their censorship of news photographs to be sent abroad, imposed Saturday. But several packets of pictures seized for examination Sunday have not yet been returned.

Airport officials said they now are permitted to air express picture packages without first submitting them to Maj. Raul Castro's Ministry of the Armed Forces for examination. Most of the seized pictures showed scenes from last Friday's munitions ship blast in Havana Harbor. The disaster presumably was the reason for the censorship.

Wedemeyer Is a Candidate

ANNAPOLIS, Md. (AP)—Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, 63, retired four-star general who commanded American forces in China during World War II, is a candidate for Republican nomination to Congress in Maryland's 6th District in the May 17 primary.

He lives on a farm in Montgomery County, not far from the nation's capital.

He will be opposed by three other candidates in the GOP race for the seat held by Rep. John R. Foley, a Democrat who has filed for renomination.

Tennessee School Case Is Pending

ALTAMONT, Tenn. (AP)—Circuit Judge Chester O. Chatlin has ruled that controversial Highland-Folk School is allowed to continue normal operations pending appeal of his decision closing the inter-racial adult education center.

The judge several days ago issued an injunction restraining the school from disposing of any of its capital assets and ordering an inventory. He also found the school, near Monticello, has been operated illegally and ordered its charter forfeited and its public welfare status dissolved.

Chatlin amended his order yesterday at the request of Highlander attorney Cecil Branstetter of Nashville. The amendment provides the injunction "shall not extend to ordinary and necessary expenses, such as salaries, postage and telephones."

Highlander was allowed a days to file a new trial motion. Chatlin also granted yesterday an additional 15 days in which the school must have the inventory completed. It was to be turned in by tomorrow but school director Myles Horton said bad weather had slowed the work.

Nixons Given a Family Portrait

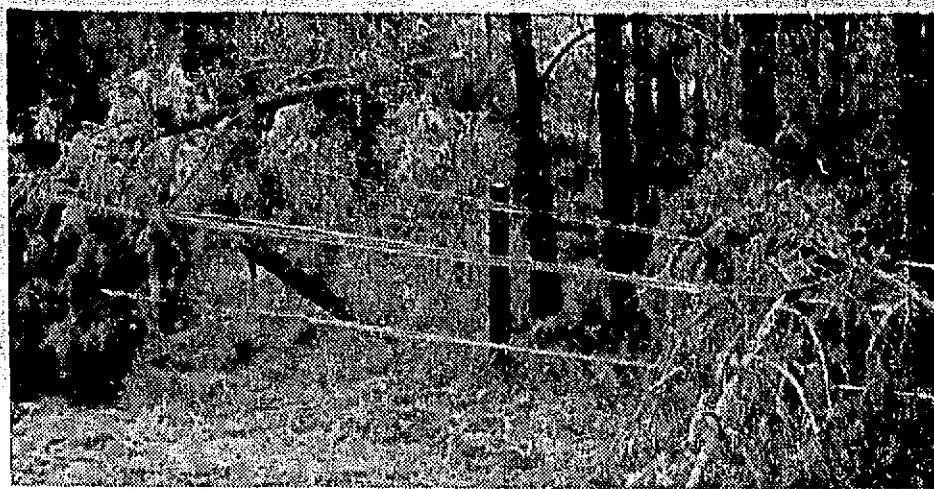

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP)—A color portrait of the Richard M. Nixon family was among birthday gifts received by Mrs. Hannah Nixon.

The vice president's mother, observing her 75th birthday Monday, also received telephoned congratulations from him and from another son, Navy Lt. Edward Nixon, who is stationed in Florida. Later she was honored at a party in the Whittier home of her third son, P. Donald Nixon. Mrs. Nixon lives in nearby La Habra.

April Draft Quota

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Arkansas April draft quota has been set at 70 men. Selective Service headquarters said the quota would be filled with non-fathers and volunteers. The April 1950 quota was 61.

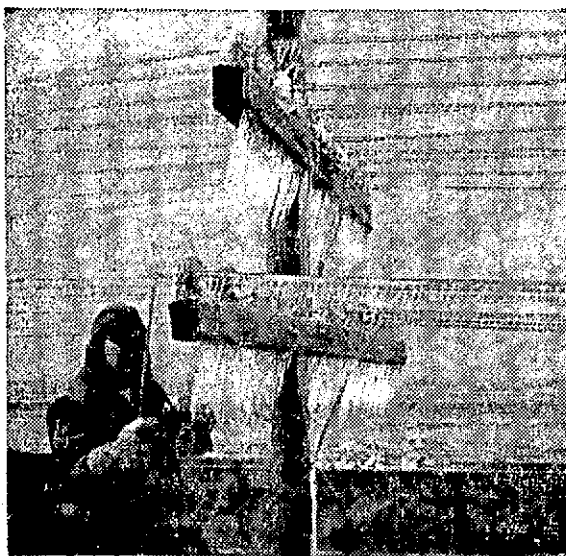

Falling trees crashed across telephone lines in many places, as in the photo above. In many places the weight of ice clinging to the wires was enough to break them, and more than 525 telephone poles were snapped by the icy load. Among the 475 telephone men who sped to the damage area to restore service were the crews pictured at right, who came from all over Arkansas and as far away as Cape Girardeau, Missouri.

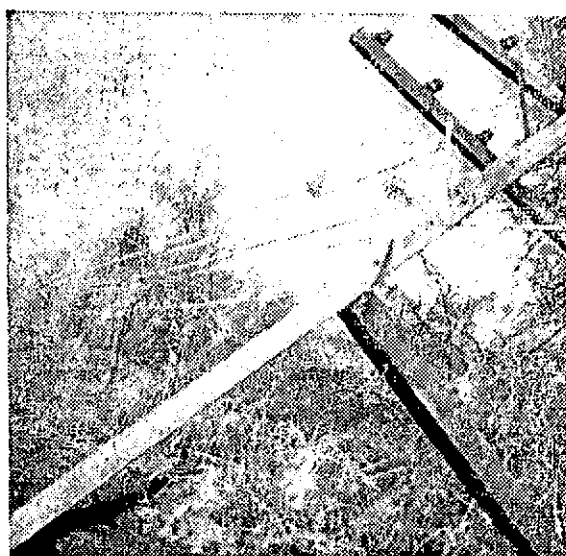

To Arkansas Telephone Users

SORRY YOU WERE INCONVENIENCED

We're Tired of Winter, Too

Safety is a prime concern for telephone men, even during emergencies. A Fayetteville lineman is shown at the top of an ice-laden pole, checking to make sure that a power line has not fallen across the telephone lines he is about to start working on.

Telephone poles were propped up to prevent further damage as storm progressed. More than 525 poles were broken during the storm.

The wintry storm that last week pounded the state with snow, sleet, and freezing rain dealt a crippling, quarter-million dollar blow to telephone service, including broken poles, wires, circuits and other facilities in southern and eastern Arkansas.

Transmission equipment was weakened, lines sagged and broke under the weight of ice, falling trees crashed across wires, and even heavy poles were snapped by the accumulation of ice. More than 7,200 telephones were knocked out of service, and at one time or another 44 towns were isolated from telephone contact with the outside world.

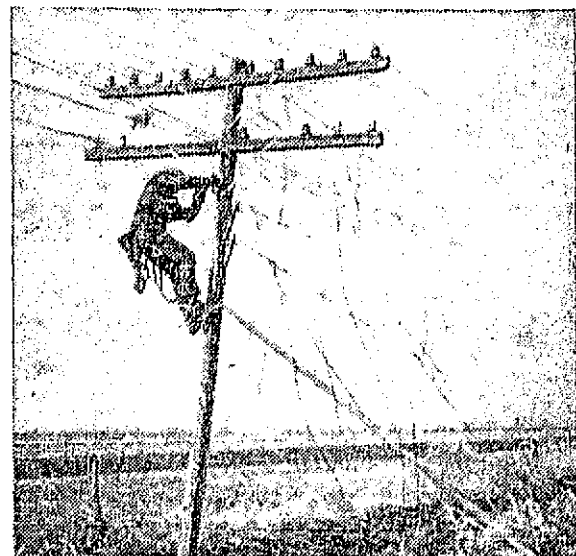

In addition, the storm . . .

- . . . downed 525 poles
- . . . broke 500 crossarms
- . . . cut 1800 wires from poles to homes
- . . . silenced 425 long distance circuits.

Even while the storm was in progress, though, 475 telephone men were busy repairing the damage, working to restore service to normal.

HELP RUSHED IN

Crews from all over Arkansas, and even from as far away as Missouri, were speeding to the scene, and Western Electric, the supply arm of the Bell System, was rushing new poles, wire, crossarms, and other needed materials to the damage area.

Tangled wires like those shown here were typical of storm damage to telephone facilities over a wide area of south and east Arkansas. In all 425 long distance circuits were knocked out temporarily.

"Stormproof" cable greatly reduced damage to telephone service. The ice-covered sign above marks the location of one such underground cable between Little Rock and Pine Bluff, and linking there with Camden, Magnolia and El Dorado.

"SPIRIT OF SERVICE"

The quick recovery of the crippled telephone system from the storm's damage is a tribute to the cooperation of telephone engineers, construction and maintenance forces, operators, and all others who had a hand in restoring and providing service, to Western Electric, and to the "spirit of service" that guides all telephone people.

It was a tremendous job, and one that could have been accomplished in such an emergency only by a progressive, successful telephone company.

We want to assure those of you whose telephone service was temporarily disrupted that we have done and are still doing everything possible to limit any inconvenience to you. Our aim is to take every possible precaution to avoid interruption of telephone service, and to be always ready to deal with emergencies like this one promptly and effectively.

contest." Gov. Wesley Powell of New Hampshire, chairman of the Nixon-for-President Committee, had predicted that Nixon would exceed Eisenhower's previous all-time high. Many New Hampshire political observers doubted it.

By RELMAN MORIN

MANCHESTER, N.H. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy packed new power into his drive for the Democratic presidential nomination today with a record-smashing vote in the New Hampshire primary.

He battered down the Republicans' traditional 2-1 margin of superiority in the state—and even received several hundred write-in votes on the GOP ballot.

It appeared the Republican vote would top the Democratic tally by no better than 5-4.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, running unopposed, also gave his admirers cause for excitement. His vote in the presidential preference poll was rolling close to the 56,464 tally racked up by President Eisenhower in the 1956 primary.

There will be a community 4-H Club meeting at Sprudell in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hendrix, Thursday, March 10, at 7:30 p.m. Purpose of the meeting is to explain community 4-H Club work and how it is organized. County Agents Smith and Ford will lead the discussion. Parents and children 10 to 21 in the area are urged to attend.

The Civic Improvement Association will hold its regular meeting Thursday, March 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the Hicks Funeral Home Chapel. All members and interested persons are urged to attend.

cially tabulated, the vote for Kennedy was 38,612. The vote for Nixon from 257 precincts was 52,045.

The dimensions of Kennedy's victory emerged by comparison to the last two New Hampshire primaries. Still incomplete, his total exceeded the combined Democratic vote of 35,000 cast for Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) and former President Truman eight years ago. In the 1956 primary, Kefauver and Adlai Stevenson together received 25,000.

As expected, Nixon and Kennedy scooped up all the delegates to their respective nominating conventions—14 Republicans each with a full vote, and 22 Democrats who share 11 votes.

Efforts on the part of admirers of New York's Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller to roll up a sizeable vote for him failed to bear fruit.

The governor, who did not enter the race and therefore was not on the ballot, received 2,512 write-in votes for president in 257 of the 300 precincts. Another 1,700 write-in votes were cast for him for vice president.

Paul C. Fisher, Chicago manufacturer, who ran against Kennedy on the Democratic ballot got 5,682 votes in the tally of 251 precincts.

Several factors affected the election.

1. Kennedy campaigned hard in the state in the last three days before the election. Members of his family, including his mother and two of his brothers, stumped the state earlier.

2. Nixon did not appear in New Hampshire. His campaign, however, was spearheaded by Gov. Wesley Powell and most of the leading Republicans in New Hampshire.

3. A sharply worded exchange of charges and retorts probably steamed up interest among voters who previously had been apathetic. On the day before the election, Powell accused Kennedy of being "soft toward communism." Kennedy hit back with a denial and the assertion that he believed Nixon would repudiate Powell's charge. The vice president, through one of his aides, did so.

Kennedy headed directly for Wisconsin where he is engaged in a struggle against Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) in the primary election, April 5.

Kennedy's victory in New Hampshire was expected—and although the vote exceeded the hopes of his most optimistic backers.

Lewisville Man to Oppose Clark part of the state.

The temperature range tomorrow will be in the 40s. Then a warming trend is in store which will last through the weekend.

Weathermen reported some light snow fell in parts of northeast Arkansas last night. Rain and sleet also fell in much of the state.

State police headquarters at Little Rock said icy conditions made travel hazardous in a few areas, especially around Harrison. No roads were reported closed.

Minimum temperatures today ranged from 31 at Walnut Ridge to 38 at El Dorado.

All sections of the state reported precipitation in the 24-hour period which ended at 6 a.m. today. Heaviest was 1.85 inches at Arkadelphia. An inch or more of rain fell at Pine Bluff, Georgetown, Clarendon and Batesville.

The Weather Bureau said Mammoth Spring in north Arkansas had a three inch accumulation of snow and sleet. Fayetteville reported two inches of snow remained on the ground and Flippin had a trace of snow.

One minor accident was attributed to weather.

Five Negroes were injured, none seriously, when their car skidded into the rear of a school bus on ice-slick U.S. Highway 70 six miles east of Glenwood yesterday.

Only two children and the driver were aboard the bus. They were of hurt.

Say Showing May Solidify Democrats

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy said today he hopes his New Hampshire primary showing will solidify Democratic support of his bid for the party's presidential nomination.

"I'm very happy about it. We did better than I thought we would," the Massachusetts senator beamed in commenting on the nation's first primary election returns.

Kennedy told a group of students and newsmen at the University of Wisconsin that his latest information put him just 17,000 votes behind the unopposed Republican candidate, Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

The Kennedy vote of 40,247 with 39 precincts' outstanding nearly doubled what Sen. Estes Kefauver polled in New Hampshire in 1956, he said.

"I think it shows we've made substantial inroads in New Hampshire," he said. "I think it shows New Hampshire Democrats are interested in my campaign."

Can't Testify in Bomb Case, Faubus Says

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Gov. Orval E. Faubus has laughed off the possibility that he might be called to testify in the trial of Maceo Antonio Binns, 31-year-old Negro charged with bombing Carlotta Walls' home Feb. 9.

Binns' attorney, W. W. Shepherd, said yesterday he might call Faubus as a witness because of remarks the governor made concerning information that a Negro paid $50 to have the bombing done.

"My testimony wouldn't be admissible because it's all hearsay evidence," Faubus said. "I know enough about law to know that hearsay evidence isn't admissible in court."

Shepherd made the remark about calling Faubus when Binns appeared in circuit court yesterday to hear his trial set for June 7.

passively. "Not in my game," he said coolly.
"My money's as good as any one else's," retorted Jethro.
"It's good money," put in Shay. "I ought to know. It was mine before you robbed it from me."

A sudden hush fell upon the immediate vicinity of the faro game. It was broken by Jethro. "Say that again, mister!"

"I'll see that you don't lose it," Shay said, and moved toward one of the faro games.
Bokker went to the bar and ordered a glass of beer. He drank it slowly while he surveyed the room. The games of chance were boisterous. A man would leave a faro game, go to the bar, take a second drink, then return to the game, sometimes carrying a second drink with him.

Bokker wondered idly what the din would be like later on in the evening. He wondered too how noisy it would be upstairs in the sleeping rooms. The floor was thin, as were the walls.
A heavy hand clapped Bokker on the shoulder. "Here you are, pardner!" boomed Jethro, the pseudo-buffalo hunter.

"Where's your partner?" Bokker asked pointedly. "Templeton." Jethro looked at Bokker with assumed surprise, then chuckled. "It was an honest game."
"I'm not complaining. I lost only $22."
"Which I'll be glad to give you back if you think I didn't win it fair and square."
"It was a cheap price for the lesson," Bokker nodded toward the table where Shay was playing faro. "Paul Shay thought his lesson was a little stiff. I'd keep away from him if I were you."

"Him?" sniffed Jethro. He shrugged and walked toward the table where Shay was playing. About a dozen men were gathered around the table. The dealer was an icy eyed man of about 30.
"Make your bets, gentlemen," he droned. "Are you ready? I'm dealing." He slipped two cards smoothly out of the card case. "King wins, seven loses." He gathered up money from the layout, paid out money. He put a double eagle on a king and looked inquiringly at Paul Shay.
"Let it go," said Shay carelessly.
"Copper your bets, gentlemen," the dealer said. "From south to huck."
He slipped out two cards. "And the final king wins once more." He added four gold coins to Shay's.
Jethro crowded in beside Shay. "Let's have a new deal now." The dealer regarded Jethro int-

Claim Victory in Carolina Boycotts

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Negro demonstrators claimed a victory in North Carolina today as the growing anti-segregation campaign entered its sixth week and spread into the eighth Southern state.

Students in two North Carolina cities seeking equal eating facilities at traditionally segregated lunch counters were served while seated Monday, apparently it was by singing and a brief prayer.

The first demonstration in West Virginia took a new form. Students paraded at a motion picture theater protesting segregated seating arrangements.
In Houston, Tex., the sit-downs spread from drug stores to a supermarket lunch counter. Service was refused and the counter area roped off. No trouble was reported.
Eleven Negroes were arrested for trespassing in Petersburg, Va., after they occupied a section reserved for white persons in the city library and refused to leave.

At Winston-Salem, N.C., 75 card-carrying students staged a two-hour demonstration climaxed by singing and a brief prayer. The anti-segregation demonstration began at Greensboro, N.C., Feb. 1. Since then they have wave of sit-downs started.

In Houston, Tex., the sit-downs spread from drug stores to a supermarket lunch counter. Service was refused and the counter area roped off. No trouble was reported.
Eleven Negroes were arrested for trespassing in Petersburg, Va., after they occupied a section reserved for white persons in the city library and refused to leave.

At Salisbury, N.C., six Negro students from Livingstone College were served in pairs at three downtown drug store lunch counters. There were no incidents spread to South Carolina, Alabama, Florida, Tennessee, Texas, Virginia and West Virginia. Sympathy demonstrations have occurred in a number of northern cities since then they have scattered money through streets.

HAMTRAMCK, Mich. (AP)—A 47-year-old factory worker left a trail of $100 bills—most of his life savings—on a ten-block stroll through this Detroit suburb Monday.

Stephen Krysiak calmly tossed $100 bills to everyone he passed. He tore others into confetti and threw away the scraps. By the time police stopped him Krysiak had distributed or destroyed

Krysiak, a Chrysler worker, said he had $20,000 when he started.
When police halted his stroll he was clutching about $5,700 in one hand. In the other—torn to shreds—was another $300 or $400.
Krysiak told police he withdrew the money from his safe deposit box because he was worried about his mother, Sophia Krysiak. His son has been under treatment for a nervous disorder.

Edward Weston walked and ran from New York to Los Angeles in 77 days in 1910 when he was 71 years old. The same walk would be 583 miles shorter today because of improvements in highways.

When police halted his stroll he was clutching about $5,700 in one hand. In the other—torn to shreds—was another $300 or $400.
